Exhibitors' Quotes

Empowered with decades of experience and expertise in organizing trade exhibitions, the Hong Kong Trade Development Council (HKTDC) is reputed internationally for its outstanding performance.

Our trade exhibitions have been the distinctive platforms where both exhibitors and buyers alike explore business opportunities. At HKTDC's world-class events where buyers and exhibitors from different countries and regions converge, our comfortable and convenient venue provides the perfect venue where they can negotiate business, exchange the latest market intelligence, and establish business contacts.

The HKTDC sincerely invites you to join this exhibition, to explore the way to success.

1. Custom Made Company (CMC) specialises in designer bean bag furnishing under its own SLACK™ brand, aiming to provide discerning consumers around the world with unique quality designer products that are innovative and exciting.

SLACK™ has several revolutionary designs for the 2006/07 season, which will be highlighted at the fair, including a new and improved version of its awarding-winning Amphibious Lounger, the first floatable and shapeable bean bag furnishing in the world, the luxurious Twin Peaks, the iconic Vicious Jaw, SLACK™'s multi positional Sutra Chaise Longue, and presenting to the world for the first time, the SLEEPY HEADS™ bean beds for pets range.

Mr Felix Chang, Partner and Chief Designer of CMC, says, "Discerning people from around the globe are spending more quality time at home, demanding a balance between work and leisure increasingly. Our products strive to bring the world's most uniquely designed beanbag furnishing to your home for such a purpose, and we see an ever-increasing group of consumers who are finding our SLACK™ lifestyle attractive enough to bring into part of their lives."

CMC is looking to capitalise on new business opportunities at the fair, "With our unique retail distribution model and brand philosophy, we hope to introduce this concept to global retailers and distributors who will find new opportunities with our brands", says Mr Chang.
